

Never give up!

A Hero is Someone Who Keeps Trying to Improve Life for Everyone

Anyeline Padilla

Sometimes we must face large obstacles in life. But we must remember that even when it is very difficult, we have to keep working to get what we want. While we work to improve our own life, we should also do something to help others.

In high-school, I met a boy whom I admired. He became one of my best friends. He was not the best student in his class; he did not get the best grades in school. But he worked hard and he was friendly. He made the people around him feel happy. When someone needed help, he was always there. For him, it was very easy to share his things with others. To me, he was a hero.

Even though he had a positive attitude about everything, his family situation was hard. He had two brothers, and his mother tried to support the whole family through her small beauty salon in their living room. Their finances were very tight.

When he finally got his high school diploma, he wanted to go to college, but his family couldn't afford it. He tried everything he could to help himself and his family. Finally, he got a loan to take classes to become a police officer. This was difficult. He had to work and go to school. But he did it. Now he is working as a police officer. He is repaying the loan and is helping his mother and brothers. He feels happy because he can also help people in his job.

I am very grateful when I see someone who has a good attitude about life. No matter what problems and difficulties are in the way, we can always do something to improve not only our own quality of life, but also the quality of life of the people around us.

Anyeline Padilla Hernandez, 25 years old, is from Colombia. She has been living in New York for two years, and she takes classes at the Borough of Manhattan Community College.

